Local Author Fair 2017

Saturday, September 30, 2017

11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Rum River Library 4201 6th Ave NW, Anoka, MN

The 2nd Annual Local Author Fair will be hosted at the Rum River Library in Anoka. This event is an opportunity for local authors to promote, sell, and discuss their works with area residents – as well as an opportunity to network with other area writers.

Authors who wish to participate in this event must complete and submit the below application by July 30, 2017. There are no fees associated with participating in this event. Applicants must also submit a single copy of one of the titles that they will be selling at the event. This copy will be reviewed for entry to the Author Fair, may be added to the library's collection and will not be returned to the author. Manuscripts and eBooks are not eligible for submission.

Applications will be reviewed during the last week of July. Twenty authors will be selected to participate in this event. All applicants will be informed of the status of their participation during the first week of August. Questions about the application process should be directed to Outreach Librarian, Rosalyn Hope at 763-324-1537.
