FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Public Invited to Law Day April 26

The public is invited to attend Anoka County Law Day 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, April 26 at the Anoka County Courthouse and Government Center, 2100 3rd Ave., Anoka.

This free event celebrates the role of law in our society and aims to promote a deeper understanding of the legal profession.

This year's theme is Free Speech, Free Press, Free Society.

Law Day events include free legal clinics and assistance in matters relating to child support, immigration, conservatorship, adult and juvenile expungement, evictions, warrants, driver license reinstatement, and more; courthouse tours; Q&A sessions with a district judge; and Sheriff K-9 Unit demonstrations.

Find more information about the schedule, clinics, directions and parking at www.mncourts.gov/anokalawday2019
