FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 19 Event Organized to Help the Homeless

Anoka County Community Connect is a one-day event dedicated to helping people who may be homeless or living with others.

The event will be held 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. September 19 at the Church of St. Timothy, 707 89th Ave. NE, Blaine. This event gives people who are struggling to find stable housing access to resources and services that can make a difference in their daily lives.

Free haircuts, flu shots, blood pressure checks, and housing information are just a few of the services to be offered. Transportation is available from select sites in northern Anoka County, and all homeless shelters will offer transportation to and from the event for their guests. A hiring event will take place 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and a free lunch will be given to those who attend.

If you'd like to volunteer to be a part of the event, visit
