FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Anoka County Library Dropoff Locations Accepting Paperwork - REVISED

If members of the public have documents or other paperwork they need to drop off for processing by Anoka County employees, they can do so at book drop box locations at the North Central, Mississippi, and Johnsville libraries; and Ramsey City Hall.

Examples of paperwork include vehicle tab renewals, child support and economic assistance application and reporting forms, and property tax payments.

Paperwork that CANNOT be accepted at drop boxes are documents related to legal service, litigation, or court matters. If your child support, economic assistance, or property tax paperwork involves a petition or claim to the Anoka County Attorney's Office, those documents MUST be served on the County Attorney. Please see <https://www.anokacounty.us/attorney> for specific direction regarding Property Tax petitions. Please see your child support/economic assistance paperwork for service by mail directions regarding legal proceedings. Questions about legal documents can be directed to the County Attorney's Office: 763-324-5550.

Those with questions about this service can visit anokacounty.us/covid19impact; access specific department pages, which can be reached on the main Anoka County website, anokacounty.us, or call the county's main number: 763-324-4000.

- North Central Library: 17565 Central Ave NE, Ham Lake.
- Mississippi Library: 410 Mississippi St. NE, Fridley.
- Johnsville Library: 12461 Oak Park Blvd., Blaine.
- Ramsey City Hall, 7550 Sunwood Drive NW, Ramsey. (Use drive-thru behind building on Veterans Drive.)
