FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Commissioner Jeff Reinert Named to Anoka County Committees

Commissioner Jeff Reinert was named chair of the county's Human Services Committee at the Anoka County Board's Jan. 5, 2021, organizational meeting. Human Services is Anoka County's largest work area that includes Community Corrections, Economic Assistance, Public Health and Environmental Services, Community Social Services and Behavioral Health and the Job Training Center.

He was also named chair of the Airport Committee and vice-chair of the Information Technology and Parks Committees and co-chair of the Anoka County/Blaine Airport Joint Powers Board.

Additionally, he was named to the Metropolitan Mosquito Control District, Children and Family Council Governing, and East Central Regional Juvenile Center Advisory Boards; the Management, Property Records & Taxation, and Anoka County Extension Committees; Anoka County-Blaine Airport Advisory Commission; Anoka County Regional Railroad Authority; Centennial Community Network and Centennial Community Services Consortium; and the Anoka County Housing and Redevelopment Authority. He was designated as the Historical Society Liaison. Reinert was named an alternate on the Law Library Board of Trustees and the Community Corrections Advisory Board. He was also named the alternate Library Board Liaison.

Reinert is a District 10 AMC voting delegate, and he is on the Health and Human Services AMC Policy Committee. He is the lead commissioner in the areas of aging, maps and pipeline safety legislation.

Reinert represents District 6 in eastern Anoka County, which includes Centerville, Circle Pines, Columbus, Lexington, Lino Lakes, Linwood Township, and a portion of Blaine.
