Columbia Heights Carjacking and Shooting

On February 2, 2021, at approximately 1:12 A.M., the Columbia Heights Police Department with the assistance of Fridley Police Department responded to sounds of gunshots and a vehicle speeding away in the 4000 block of Washington Street NE in the city of Columbia Heights. Shortly after responding, officers located an adult male nearby who reported having been shot after the vehicle he was driving was stolen. The victim was transported by Allina EMS to a local hospital and is in stable condition. No arrests have been made.

The incident remains under investigation by the Columbia Heights Police Department and Anoka County Sheriff's Office. No additional information will be provided at this time.
