Columbia Heights Fire

On May 29, 2021, at approximately 4:20 A.M., the Columbia Heights Police Department, Columbia Heights Fire Department, Allina EMS, and Anoka County Fire Investigation Team responded to the 4300 block of 3rd Street NE in the city of Columbia Heights on the report of a unit within a multi-family building on fire.

Early indications show that an adult male and female were inside the unit when the fire started. Both individuals were able to escape the unit on their own accord. The female was later transported to a local hospital where she is in stable condition.

This incident remains under investigation by the Columbia Heights Police Department, Minnesota State Fire Marshal, and the Anoka County Sheriff's Office. No additional information will be provided at this time.
