Anoka County Sheriff James Stuart Elected Minnesota Sheriffs' Association President

Anoka County Sheriff James Stuart has been elected as the 2022 Minnesota Sheriffs' Association president, proudly continuing the association's vision to continually support and advance the Office of the Sheriff in the State of Minnesota in providing service to all. "While it is already a huge honor to serve Anoka County as the elected sheriff, it is truly humbling to be chosen by Minnesota's top cops to represent them as their president. I will continue to work with the association's leadership to raise the bar for training, leadership, trust, professionalism, and service. The association's 136-year history is a proud one on which we will continue to build." stated Stuart.

The installation ceremony featured the Anoka County Sheriff's Office Honor Guard as they conducted a ceremonial rifle inspection and then presented the colors before the event. Commander Wayne Heath was presented with the prestigious President's Award by outgoing MSA President Isanti County Sheriff Chris Caulk. The President's Award is given to one person whom the president feels exemplifies public service and selflessness.

The Minnesota Sheriffs' Association's mission is to advance legislation for the betterment of the public, foster continuing education and training, and support fellow sheriffs in the performance of their statutory duties. The guiding principals of the Minnesota Sheriff's Association include honesty, respect, integrity, pride, and professionalism.
