Anoka County Sheriff's Office Swearing-In Ceremony

On April 20, 2022, the Anoka County Sheriff's Office welcomed three new members to our team and promoted two new sergeants. Deputies Jonathan Tschida and Justin Nelson were promoted to the rank of Sergeant and will be assigned to the Patrol Division, where they will serve as front-line supervisors. Jason Eyberg was sworn in as a new Deputy and will also be assigned to the Patrol Division. Scott Johnson and Pronob Basumatary were sworn in as Detention Deputies and will join the Jail Division.

Reflecting on our newly hired and promoted deputies, Sheriff Stuart said "Despite challenging times for recruitment, we are fortunate to continue getting exemplary candidates to join our team. Working together, we will continue writing success stories with our community partners."
