Hiring People with Disabilities is a three-part workforce strategy series focused at providing the information that small to medium sized businesses need to recruit, hire, and retain people with disabilities.

Topics covered will include:

- » Economic benefits of a diverse workforce (May 23)
- » Best practices for interviewing people with disabilities (July 17)
- » Sustaining a long-term culture of inclusion (October 9)

Sessions may be attended as a series or individually.

Each session will feature:

- » Employer success stories on how they built disability inclusive cultures
- » State disability employment resources
- » Community based connections

All will advocate and provide tools for your business success!

Intended Audience:

- » Small to mid-sized employers and businesses

Upcoming Sessions:

July 17 - Bloomington
