

Mark is a 16-year-old living with his parents and a 9-year-old sister. His parents lost their jobs because of the COVID-19 pandemic. His dad was able to get an over-night job and sleeps during the day. His mom must stay home with his special-needs sister, since there is no school. They have one car, but Mark doesn't have a driver's license yet.

Mark would like to find a job to help with income and get out of the house.

Here are the options Mark is considering:

1. He could apply online for jobs in walking distance from home.
2. He could apply to the grocery store that his friend works at and hope his friend could give him a ride.
3. He could sell some video games and buy a bike and then apply for jobs at the mall down the street.
4. He could ask his youth counselor for job search help and learn how to make his applications and interview skills stand out!
